FARMER IAN AND HIS ANIMALS COME TO YOU!

Farmer Ian & His Animals Love To Visit:

LONGDOWN MOBILE FARM: AN UNFORGETTABLE HANDS-ON ANIMAL EXPERIENCE FOR ALL.

Hold a baby chick, stroke a calf, or feed a kid goat; you can enjoy a hands-on farmyard experience right on your own doorstep because Farmer Ian brings his mobile farm to you.

Whether you require a learning experience for school children, a heart-warming meet and greet session for rest home residents, a novel addition to your wedding or event, or even a team-bonding encounter for your staff, Farmer Ian provides a range of farmyard experiences perfectly designed to meet your needs and your venue.

Children and adults alike will delight in meeting a range of farm animals such as piglets, calves, kid goats, chicks, ducklings, rabbits, guinea pigs, and Max the miniature donkey. All the farm animals are friendly, calm and sociable; and they always try to be on their very best behaviour.

Hygiene and animal welfare is very important to Farmer Ian, so you can be assured that during and after your interactive animal experience, yours and the animals' well-being are his priority.

Farmer Ian and the animals are fully insured, risk assessed and inoculated! Please ask to see documentation and DBS certificate.

Preschools, Schools & Children's Groups

Whatever the age and ability of your school group or children's group, Farmer Ian and the animals will provide an interactive hands-on experience which is educational, but above all, fun. The content of the visit can be curriculum-based for older children, or for younger children and special needs pupils, a less formal animal encounter session with an educational slant. Simply discuss your requirements with Farmer Ian for a bespoke visit to suit your needs.

No need to worry about the logistics and expenses of coach travel because Farmer Ian and his animals come to you.
