"This was our first trip to India and I wouldn't choose to do it any other way. Our Tour Director Ajay was absolutely fantastic making sure that no stone went unturned and when the weather created challenges he adjusted some activities seamlessly."

"Beautiful experience. Could not have done all the things we did or seen all the places that we saw had we not had Uniworld to guide the way. We stayed in the most Beautiful hotels, saw so many popular places, got to experience riding in rickshaws, watching our chefs on the ship make delicious food and drinks. We had a Yoga instructor who was amazing. The ship was beautiful and provided wonderful entertainment from local entertainers and always had something to keep us busy. We took the post trip to Varanasi which was breathtaking. To experience this was beyond anything we ever imagined."

"Uniworld is way and beyond a class act on its own. I believe their ethos of look after your employees and they will look after the guests is the reason these cruises are so wonderful. The meticulous planning, the re planing when things change make the trip seamless and so personal. The meals on the ship superior to those from the best of the best hotels, the entertainment par excellence and the tours, when there is so much to pick from, pinpoint what seems to be historically important and the information garnered from the best guides."
