THE VISION

Ships designed for destination-focused voyages

When we launched our first river voyages in 1997, we wanted to offer the most unique and culturally enriching itineraries possible. Thus began a journey that has marked the rise of river sailing as the fastest-growing travel segment. Soon our guests grew eager to journey with us on the iconic waterways of Europe—the Rhine, Main, Danube, Seine and Rhône Rivers—and farther afield to the Douro, Nile and Mekong Rivers. Since then, we have been doing what comes quite naturally to us—innovating the travel experience in a way that enriches and engages our guests—and along the way we have received many accolades from travellers and industry insiders alike. We are honoured by their consistent top ratings and high praises that have made us the world’s most award-winning river line.

At Viking, we believe we owe our success to our desire to build vessels that are carefully designed to connect our guests to local culture, with an understated interior elegance that never upstages the destination. In 2012, we introduced our innovative Viking Longships, designed to navigate Europe’s storied waters. Their agility allows them to dock in the heart of riverside cities and villages while providing a spacious onboard atmosphere, thanks to a patented design that maximises space and generous, open areas filled with natural light. Full-size verandas, true two-room suites and the most al fresco dining available bring destinations even closer. And with an enriching variety of events and activities on shore and on board, these state-of-the-art ships fully immerse you in local culture. Our Longships® have taken river voyages to a new level of sophistication and comfort.

But we did not stop there. In response to requests from our loyal guests, we applied the same small ship experience to the seas, launching our destination-focused ocean voyages in 2015.

To create the unique Viking experience at sea, we have reimagined the vessel from the inside out, and have built the world’s most elegant fleet of sister ships. Our streamlined design creates a spacious and inviting home that connects you to the places you have journeyed so far to see. Designed to evoke a sense of comfort akin to a floating hotel, our ships boast a serene atmosphere with light-filled spaces and an understated elegance. With a veranda in every stateroom, the world’s beauty is close enough to touch. Throughout, the Scandinavian design of our ships celebrates our Nordic heritage: clean lines, colourful woven textiles and light woods that embodies the Viking spirit of discovery and connection to the natural world.

Celebrating our 25th anniversary with the launch of Viking Expeditions® in 2022, we now explore all seven continents with our new voyages to Antarctica, the Arctic and the Great Lakes. And in welcoming the Viking Mississippi, we ushered in a new era of modern river voyages to America’s heartland.

Viking was recently named Best River Cruise Operator and Best Luxury Ocean Cruise Operator at the 2025 Times and Sunday Times Travel Awards, Number One for Rivers and Number One for Oceans* at the Condé Nast Traveller Readers’ Choice Awards, and Best Boutique Ocean Cruise Line at the 2025 Telegraph Travel Awards. These recognitions only strengthen our resolve to continue creating destination-focused experiences for curious travellers.

We hope you enjoy your journey—whether by river, ocean or lake.

OUR VIKING HERITAGE

Our ocean ships and enriching itineraries carry our Viking heritage forward, ushering in the next generation of exploration and discovery

During the great Viking Age, enterprising Norsemen established coastal trading settlements throughout Europe and navigated Russia’s rivers to access overland trade routes. They also launched ships west, sailing across oceans to settle in Iceland and Greenland and setting foot on North American soil in the 10th century, the first Europeans to do so. As shipbuilders, the Vikings were innovators whose designs evolved to accommodate their seafaring needs. The ships’ powerful hulls were constructed to ply open oceans while their manoeuvrability let them slip nimbly into small ports. Built for speed and endurance, Viking ships were recognised, respected and imitated the world over.

The success of the Viking era can be credited to a rich Scandinavian culture wedded to the sea. At Viking, we cherish our connection to these seafaring pioneers. Their spirit inspires everything we do, from the journeys we offer our guests to the innovative ships we build.

BUILDING UPON OUR RICH HISTORY

The simply designed ships of the Viking Age, which weathered the brunt of open ocean waters and easily manoeuvred into small ports, were carved from oak and other elements harvested from nature. The clean, streamlined designs of these earliest Scandinavian explorers are the inspiration for our own Viking river, ocean and expedition ships. Many of the materials that went into these elegant vessels were created by hand from nature, not by a mass production line. In proud Nordic tradition, our wood grains show their imperfections, giving you a feeling for their pure character. Natural stains, matte finishes and subtle accents of slate, teak and limestone exude warmth and a variety of textures. Colourful textiles are woven in true Scandinavian spirit. Onboard accents — from rugs and tapestries to window treatments — borrow from the beauty and patterns of the earliest Nordic artists and craftsmen from Norway to Iceland. And our open public spaces with vast windows bring in natural light, whether solar, lunar or glow from the aurora borealis. With so much of the natural world living in our sister ships, we like to think that they could have been forged by the pantheon of Norse gods.

Driven by an insatiable spirit of discovery, the Vikings sailed to Europe's farthest shores. That adventuresome spirit shapes the immersive cultural exploration infused in our shore excursions, enrichment lectures, entertainment and onboard cuisine. In addition, our itineraries follow in the Vikings' wake, tracing many of their original trade routes, like those through the Baltic Sea and along Norway's stunning coast...along the North Sea to France, the British Isles and Faroe Islands... across the Atlantic to Iceland, Greenland and North America...and deep into the Mediterranean Sea to the shores of southern Europe and northern Africa.

Experiences created for curious travellers

We all travel to explore, to learn, to understand. At Viking, we believe travel should be more than just a trip—it should be a doorway to cultural insight and personal enrichment. That is why our voyages are designed to help you explore and engage with your destination through its food, culture, countryside and customs.

Before you travel, we provide a variety of materials to help you plan and anticipate your journey, from filmographies that inspire wanderlust to recommended reading that informs and enlightens. Onboard activities are designed for enrichment and renewal. We offer lectures on history and art, cooking demonstrations of local favourites, menus offering regional cuisine and more. On shore, you might accompany the ship's chef to a local market; go behind the scenes at a famous theatre company; tour a chocolate or car factory; or view a museum's private collection. Even our ship interiors are designed to inform, with original Nordic artwork and libraries stocked with books specially selected by London bookshop Heywood Hill. Combined with public spaces that enable learning opportunities, our aim is to help you feel more connected—to newfound friends and the world.

ENRICHING EXCURSIONS

Discovering another culture is a wondrous awakening. On a Viking voyage, you will have the opportunity to truly explore the best of your destination, from castles steeped in history to outdoor markets brimming with local colour. We deliver you to extraordinary shores — and invite you to experience them fully.

One of the best ways to get acquainted with your destination is through our shore excursion programme. With an included excursion in every port, expert local guides show you the must-see highlights and delightful surprises in their world. Or, follow your interests and explore in-depth with a wide variety of optional shore excursions, from walking food tours to after-hours museum visits.

THE FLAVOURS OF YOUR DESTINATION

Some say the best way to know a culture is through its food and wine. Our highly trained chefs are passionate about world cuisine and committed to providing a complete gastronomic experience. In our ships' hospitable dining areas, our service is friendly, attentive and personalised, and our menus offer choices, from regional dishes to always available classics.

On river voyages, taste regional dishes in The Restaurant, dine al fresco on the Aquavit Terrace or attend our signature "Taste of..." events. Open seating makes it easy to meet new friends. At sea on our ocean and expedition ships, choose from multiple dining venues with sweeping views; sample assorted Norwegian smørbrød at Mamsen's; try sushi at the World Café; or savour handmade pasta at Manfredi's Italian Restaurant. Also on our ocean ships, enjoy afternoon tea at the Wintergarden, complete with a tea steward to educate you on the nuances of international blends.

While we always offer complimentary beer and wine at lunch and dinner, our Silver Spirits Beverage Package provides unlimited beverages at all onboard venues anytime throughout the duration of your voyage. For a daily fee, the package includes our house champagne, wine and beer, plus select premium wine, cocktails, aperitifs, a selection of upgraded whiskies and more.

OUR VIKING FAMILY

From the instant you plan your voyage, to the moment you return home, our staff take excellent care of you. Thanks to their attentiveness, Viking has more than 250 major awards to our name.

Our worldwide staff of more than 10,000 are fully committed to making your voyage truly unforgettable. With a Viking reservations agent, booking your journey is a pleasure. On board, your server learns your favourite wine and food preferences. Our Swiss-trained, English-speaking staff excel in superior service. We are so confident that we will exceed your expectations that we are the only passenger line to guarantee its award-winning service.

THE VIKING WAY®

Our included shore excursions provide an overview of must-see cultural and historic highlights, with some delightful surprises. These expertly guided tours bring you closer to the art, architecture, history and people that define your destination. Should you want to explore more, our wide selection of curated optional tours helps you delve more deeply into local culture and view your destination from a new perspective.

The Viking Way of exploration offers behind-the-scenes insights and opportunities that set us apart. While we feature the expected and iconic—such as visits to renowned museums and notable landmarks—we also work hard to offer our guests Local Life, Working World and optional Privileged Access® experiences opening doors to places otherwise difficult to visit.

Karine Hagen has travelled the globe to develop these Viking Way experiences, and has captured some of them in a series of inspiring Destination Insights videos. We invite you to view our video library at viking.com.

Karine Hagen is Executive Vice President, Product. At home in Norway, Switzerland, America and England, Karine loves sharing her worlds and insights with Viking guests. She is responsible for infusing our itineraries with The Viking Way, giving us all the opportunity to have these extraordinary experiences.

LOCAL LIFE

In her centuries-old home, Palazzo Tiepolo on the Grand Canal, local chef Contessa Passi teaches Karine how to make risi e bisi, a risotto of rice and peas, and fegato, a delicious dish of liver and onions.

Walk through Libourne's bustling market with Karine and Viking Chef Magalie as they shop for fresh fruits and vegetables to be served in the ship's dining room.

WORKING WORLD

In the pristine waters off the coast of Croatia just outside Dubrovnik, Pero Sare and his family have been farming oysters and mussels for generations. See Pero teach Karine how to shuck an oyster.

In Portugal, Karine meets Dona Manuela, whose family has been making their famous bread for centuries. Share her delight and dedication as she slides golden loaves from the oven.

PRIVILEGED ACCESS

Tour some of Antoni Gaudí's distinctive works in Barcelona. Explore Casa Vicens, La Sagrada Família and Casa Batlló, the "House of Bones."

Prince William Lobkowitz opens his home to Viking guests. This palace is a hidden gem among Prague's royal residences and features original Beethoven manuscripts and priceless art.

RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL

Viking is committed to delivering a superior travel experience to our guests, and also to operate responsibly wherever our journeys take us. The communities we visit are at the core of the travel experience, and we seek to work with local individuals and companies, creating long-lasting mutually beneficial partnerships.

In addition to Viking's direct contributions, our guests' discretionary spending fuels local economies. Spending more time in port than traditional passenger lines, providing an included shore excursion in each port, and encouraging rather than deterring guests from bringing local food and drink on the ship increases the economic impact our port calls have.

Perhaps nothing exemplifies our approach better than the wall art that adorns many of our ships' staterooms: Instead of meaningless hotel "art" by the metre, photographs of iconic sights and destinations all over the world are matched with drawings made by school children. This initiative, a joint effort with two rural Viking-sponsored schools in China has been expanded to include drawings from schoolchildren in Egypt and from communities along the Mississippi River.

TECHNOLOGY & THE ENVIRONMENT

At Viking, we are conscious of our responsibility to the environment and the regions through which we sail; thus, our ships are designed to the highest environmental standards. Our long-term success depends on our ability to develop programmes that meet or exceed both the global regulatory frameworks as well as local regulations in the most vulnerable areas we explore, such as the Arctic, Antarctica, Europe's inland waterways, the Norwegian fjords or the Alaskan coast.

Our vessels, though dependent on shoreside infrastructure and supplies, operate as self-sustained entities, capable of providing electricity, water and waste treatment facilities. The careful management to minimise our environmental footprint is essential and all our vessels are designed to be environmentally responsible and efficient to operate. While each vessel class has specific operational characteristics, some key principles can be found across our entire fleet:

EFFICIENT USE OF SPACE—Because every bit of added weight results in extra fuel consumption, we are careful to add to our ships only what is needed, prioritising optimal guest comfort and operational efficiency.

SLEEK HULL DESIGN—Our ocean and expedition vessels have been designed with energy-efficient hulls, propellers and rudders to reduce resistance in the water and therefore reduce fuel consumption.

DIESEL-ELECTRIC PROPULSION—Virtually all our ships use diesel/electric propulsion technology, where a series of electric motors drive the ship propellers, while the diesel engines act as a generator. Diesel-electric technology is also future-proof: with time, it will be easy to replace diesel engines with more sustainable technologies, such as batteries and fuel cells.

SHORE POWER—The majority of our vessels can connect with shore power to reduce, where possible, reliance on fuel while in port. This allows operations with zero emissions and less noise. Our own docking facilities along Europe's rivers are being equipped with rapid charging systems to further reduce reliance on diesel fuel.

ADVANCED RECYCLING AND WASTE MANAGEMENT—Our entire fleet is equipped with advanced waste- water treatment systems, ballast water treatment systems (ocean and expedition) and onboard trash compacting and recycling centres to minimise the generation of waste and enable responsible recycling in shore facilities.

ADDITIONAL FEATURES—Across our fleet, other measures in place to reduce our environmental footprint include: low-energy LED lighting resulting in a lower heat output, lower power usage and a longer life; waste heat recovery systems that use the heat from the engines as a free source for heating water; intelligent HVAC systems that reduce power when rooms are not in use; and noise and light pollution reduction technologies, reducing our impact on local communities and landscapes.

The above-mentioned technologies, in combination with vessel-specific characteristics, allow us to deploy a fleet of very efficient vessels that meet or exceed environmental regulations across the world.

WHY VIKING IS BETTER VALUE

How do we do it?

- With a 100% small ship fleet, Viking is the largest luxury cruise line*. This means we have considerable economies of scale in the building of vessels and the purchasing of goods and services for ongoing operations. Therefore, we can accommodate more guests with the same operating costs and pass that benefit on to our guests, in the form of lower prices.
- Our award-winning fleet is the largest in the river cruise industry, by far. We also own and operate our ships and the best docking locations on the rivers of Europe. Our fleet of Viking Longships has a patented design which features three full decks— maximising space on board that otherwise goes unused on many competitor ships. Viking Longships also feature asymmetric corridors, which has allowed us to create true two-room suites.
- Our award-winning fleet of both ocean and expedition ships is designed to be space and energy-efficient, without onboard features like casinos and children’s areas. This creative design maximises space for guest rooms and reduces overall fuel costs.

TOR'S TRAVELS

Viking Chairman and CEO Torstein Hagen recounts his trip of a lifetime to Antarctica

During a festive voyage on board the Viking Polaris, Viking Chairman and CEO Torstein Hagen, accompanied by a close circle of friends, embarked on an extraordinary journey to Antarctica—his first true holiday in 25 years. This expedition offered a blend of breathtaking landscapes, remarkable wildlife and insightful scientific research. Discover the highlights and cherished experiences that Tor and his companions enjoyed while on the majestic “White Continent.”

POST OFFICE IN PORT LOCKROY

TORSTEIN HAGEN ON A ZODIAC

Q: Can you tell us about your trip to Antarctica?

A: In 2022, I fulfilled my childhood dream of visiting Antarctica, starting from Ushuaia, Argentina. Along with a few friends, including my neighbours, we embarked on an unforgettable journey. The trip was full of experiences, from smooth sailing on the Drake Passage to exploring in submarines and witnessing the majestic landscapes and wildlife of Antarctica.

“It is a journey that stays with you long after you have returned home.”

Q: What was the highlight of the trip for you?

A: Every day brought something new and impressive, from the peaceful feeling of watching the sea to the thrill of spotting wildlife like whales and penguins. The sheer scale of Antarctica’s landscapes was awe-inspiring.

Q: What about the scientific aspects of the voyage?

A: The ship is a travelling laboratory. We engaged in real scientific research, including collecting plankton samples and launching weather balloons for data. The exclusive partnerships we have with various institutions will ultimately help with our understanding of the Antarctic environment.

Q: Any memorable moments from the trip you would like to share?

A: Visiting Port Lockroy, to get a postmark on one of my childhood letters, was special. Witnessing an avalanche and the research community living with the penguins was truly unique. Also, the joy of observing the natural world, from pods of whales to the vast icebergs, was incomparable.

Q: How did you spend your time on the ship?

A: Apart from the adventures on shore, I took the opportunity to relax and watch the scenery. I also will admit that I like to take advantage of The Nordic Spa whenever I can. It was a balance of exploration and leisure.

THE ONBOARD SCIENCE LAB

Q: Can you describe the impact of this trip on you?

A: This journey to Antarctica was transformative. The grandeur and sheer magnitude of the continent put things into perspective. It is a reminder of the vastness of our planet and the importance of preserving such pristine environments.

Q: Any advice for future visitors to Antarctica?

A: Embrace every moment. Whether it is the scientific research, the wildlife or the landscapes, each aspect of Antarctica offers a unique and enriching experience. It is a destination that demands an open mind and heart to fully appreciate its wonders.

Q: What are your final thoughts on this expedition?

A: This trip to Antarctica was a lifelong dream come true. It is an experience that goes beyond mere sightseeing; it is about being part of something larger than oneself. It is a journey that stays with you long after you have returned home. ●

VIKING MISSISSIPPI SHIP

We designed the Viking Mississippi from the inside out with your comfort in mind. Starting with our signature Scandinavian style of clean lines, neutral tones and natural materials, even the smallest details take their inspiration from the exploratory spirit of the original Vikings. As this is a ship built specifically to sail in the United States, we have also paid tribute to American history and culture with subtle elements throughout the interior decor. With a selection of staterooms and open and serene public spaces, the Viking Mississippi brings modern river voyages to America's great river.

Inspired by our award-winning river and ocean ships, public areas are familiar to our Viking guests but reimagined for Mississippi River voyages, from the comfortable Living Room to the quiet Library. The two-deck Explorers' Lounge has floor-to-ceiling windows that open to The Bow, a unique outdoor seating area at the front of the ship.

An outdoor seating area at the top of the ship, the Aquavit Terrace is based on Southern living and the great outdoors. Here, celebrate casual time with friends while taking in sweeping views of America's heartland.

The River Café is a revolutionary indoor/outdoor casual dining venue serving pastries and coffee for early risers as well as breakfast, lunch and dinner. Dine on a range of dishes, including American favourites and Southern barbecue.
