In the heart of the Marquesas Islands, the island of Hiva Oa reveals itself as an unexpected gem. In the commune of Puama'u, the archaeological site of Meae Lipona where the famous tikis stand, nestled in a preserved valley, inaccessible to most. Every moment here is experienced as an absolute privilege, between changing light and grandiose landscapes, discover the unique intimacy between nature and history.

Rapa, a taste of the end of the world

Itinerary: Secret Polynesia: The Hidden Tuamotus, Gambier & Austral Islands aboard Le Jacques Cartier.

Situated at the edge of the Pacific, Rapa Island, the southernmost inhabited island in the archipelago, reveals itself like a secret jealously guarded by the ocean. Its deep valleys, steep cliffs and solitary peaks tell the story of ancestors and forgotten legends. Here, every trail is an invitation for adventure, every horizon a breath of emotion, a world away from the hustle and bustle of crowds.

Huahine, the island with unspoilt charm

Itinerary: Society Islands and Tuamotu Islands aboard m/s Paul Gauguin.

In the heart of French Polynesia, Huahine reveals itself through its authentic landscapes and peaceful atmosphere. Its crystal-clear lagoons, green hills and secluded coves tell the story of an island where nature and traditions live in harmony. Between Grande Huahine and Petite Huahine, the villages, discreet passages and panoramic views offer rare experiences, imbued with mystery and Polynesian authenticity.
