Setting sail in Lisbon, Portugal's dynamic capital, relax into life at sea for a day as we cross to the Spanish city of Cádiz, a baroque beauty serving superb seafood. Málaga comes next, a beach city graced with world-class art, then, in Cartagena, uncover the layers of civilization dating from 220BCE. In Alicante, dive into a paella - this is its birthplace - and see the Gothic cathedral in Castellón, our last stop before Barcelona.

WHY NOT BOOK: Discover the history of tapas on a delicious tour of Cartagena

Depart San Diego for the vineyards of Ensenada, Mexico, followed by a sea day traveling to the fun resorts of Cabo San Lucas and Puerto Vallarta. Refuel on local coffee in Acajutla, El Salvador, before surfing at San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua, and a nature trek at Puntarenas, Costa Rica. South America is our quest on a day at sea, arriving at Manta, Ecuador, famed for producing wickerwork, then Guayaquil, for the Galapagos Islands.

WHY NOT BOOK: Visit Joya de Cerén, the Pompeii of the Americas, in El Salvador

Our quest starts in lively Barcelona, calling at Toulon, France, for fine sands and art, and glamorous Monte Carlo, on our way to Italy. First stop Livorno, gateway to Florence, then Porto Santo Stefano to see the wild side of Tuscany. We cross to the azure bays of Olbia, Sardinia, and get a flavor of nearby Africa in the trattoria of Trapani, Sicily. Salerno welcomes us to the beautiful Amalfi Coast, before we arrive at Civitavecchia for Rome.

WHY NOT BOOK: Learn to cook a quintessential Tuscan meal at a vineyard

Unearth the treasures of Italy, Croatia, and Greece, starting in hopelessly romantic Venice. Set sail for Trieste, a bordertown much fought over down the centuries, then the beautiful walled city of Dubrovnik, Croatia. The lush Ionian island of Corfu offers a pine-scented introduction to Greece, followed by mountainous Cephalonia. Now to the mainland and the medieval town of Monemvasia, before we reach Piraeus, gateway to Athens.

WHY NOT BOOK: Explore the ruins of the Byzantine stronghold of Mystras in Greece

Island-hop from San Juan, Puerto Rico to the French-speaking side of Saint Martin and rainforest-clad Dominica. Next, buzzy Bridgetown offers powder sands, and the soaring Pitons signal we are in Saint Lucia. Hear tales of Admiral Nelson in Antigua, and hang out at a beach bar in Jost Van Dyke. There's history to uncover in the Dominican Republic and turquoise seas at Turks and Caicos, before two sea days deliver us to New York City.

WHY NOT BOOK: Take a yoga class and enjoy a farm-to-table lunch in Barbados

Leave behind the razzle-dazzle of New York for a day at sea traveling to Nova Scotia, to visit the capital, Halifax, and Sydney on Cape Breton, both steeped in maritime heritage. Next Charlottetown, the lively capital of Prince Edward Island with a thriving arts scene, then Quebec and Les Îles-de-la-Madeleine - admire the Gulf of Saint Lawrence from the red sandstone cliffs. Another sea day brings us to Montreal, in time to see the fall colors.

WHY NOT BOOK: Find out about the Mi'kmaq way of life at Cape Breton

We always collaborate with the best, especially in our specialty restaurants. First Chef Nobu, then Riccardo Giraudi's Beefbar, and now the Alajmo brothers, fêted for their restaurants across Italy, including the three-Michelin-star Le Calandre in Rubano. Like us, the brothers prize top-quality food, a tempting variety of choice, and a truly relaxing atmosphere. In their own words, they have created an "embassy of Italy in the middle of the sea". We couldn't agree more.
