Discover the Mediterranean — the Crystal way

PORTOFINO, ITALY

From blockbuster sights to lesser-known ports, Crystal takes you to the beating heart of this timeless region like no one else can.

The siren call of the Mediterranean is hard to ignore. Who doesn't dream of gazing in awe at Renaissance masterpieces, exploring whitewashed villages framed by cerulean waters, and seeing the monuments and temples described in history books before your very eyes? But with so much to see and do, it can be hard to know where to begin planning your visit – and that's why many travelers turn to Crystal.

Our Mediterranean itineraries are thoughtfully designed to deliver a mix of blockbuster sights complemented by lesser-known spots bursting with authentic charm but with fewer crowds. We also offer more time in ports along with multiple overnights to give you longer to discover a destination, while our routes have been carefully considered to avoid repetition. On some voyages, we call at several places within one country to allow for a deeper dive into that destination. With Crystal, you'll never get the sense that you're on a whistlestop tour; instead, we invite you to sink into the unhurried pace of the Med and embrace the rhythm of languid, sunny days and lively nights.

And that's not all. Our elegant ships are perfectly sized to visit smaller ports that larger vessels can't access, allowing you to explore away from the well-trodden tourist path even in a destination as popular as the Mediterranean.

On shore, we offer a wealth of experiences that immerse you deeper into the culture and history of the region, from hands-on cooking classes to insightful art tours. Our guests also benefit from our partnership with our sister brand, leading travel experts Abercrombie & Kent, on a variety of expert-led pre- and post-cruise extensions that give you unrivalled access to the region's sights and experiences, from the high-octane thrills of the Formula 1 Grand Prix to the cultural and culinary treasures of Spain.

It's all yours to discover while you sail in the utmost comfort and style with like-minded travelers and staff who make you feel instantly at home. ♦

voyages that stir
the senses*

MALAGA, SPAIN

7 NIGHTS

AUG 14 - AUG 21, 2026

CRYSTAL
SERENITY

Tour the Iberian Peninsula on a voyage around the coasts of Portugal and Spain. Our cruise begins in Lisbon, the dynamic Portuguese capital, which is capturing hearts with its exquisite architecture, great nightlife – and those delicious custard tarts, pastel de nata. We relax into life at sea for a day as we cross the Spanish border to Cádiz. This beach city is a baroque beauty, where you can dine on some of the best seafood in Andalucía. Málaga comes next, another city graced with sandy shores. Find out about its famous son at the Picasso Museum. In Cartagena uncover the layers of civilization that stretch back here to 220BCE, including a Roman amphitheater. In Alicante, tuck into a paella – this is its birthplace – and enjoy pristine beaches in Castellón. Our final destination is Barcelona, the invigorating capital of Catalonia, for Gaudí, Gothic architecture, and tapas aplenty.

Our journey starts in the lively city of Barcelona, from where we cross the French border to call at Toulon for fine sands and fine art. Glamorous Monte Carlo follows – can you resist a throw of the dice in the famous casino? Then, it's onwards to Italy and Livorno in Tuscany, gateway to Florence's cultural riches and the vineyards of Chianti. Porto Santo Stefano offers a wilder view of Tuscany, then we cross to the palm-fringed waterfront of Olbia on the enigmatic island of Sardinia. To Sicily now and Trapani, a city so close to Africa that you can taste the continent's influence in the tempting dishes served in its restaurants. Then it's back to the Italian mainland and Salerno for the Amalfi coast, with its heart-melting landscape of colorful villages clinging to the cliffs. Finally, we arrive at Civitavecchia, within touching distance of the ancient wonders of Rome.

Wave goodbye to Rome as we set sail from Civitavecchia on a short tour that ticks off four countries – Italy, Greece, Montenegro and Croatia. Sorrento is our first port of call, heady with the scent of its lemon trees, then Siracusa on Sicily, to explore the delightful old town, with its ancient Greek and Roman ruins. Now relax and enjoy all our ship has to offer as we head to Greece and the lush, green island of Corfu, where there is good walking along the pine-fringed cliffs. Next Montenegro and the labyrinthine fortress town of Kotor, then Zadar on Croatia's Dalmatian coast with its curious Sea Organ, a sound installation on the waterfront designed to let the waves play music. We return to Italy now, for an overnight in Ravenna, an unsung city, yet home to eight Early Christian monuments that have all been listed by UNESCO, before our final port, Fusina, gateway to Venice.

The treasures of the coasts of Italy, Croatia, and Greece provide a compelling route south for this special voyage in the company of the Alajmo brothers. Make the most of your time in romantic Venice before we set sail for Trieste, a border town claimed by so many down the years that it has a distinctly independent air. We head to Dubrovnik now, on Croatia's Dalmatian coast, the old walled city that has gained new fans from starring as a location in Game of Thrones. The lush green island of Corfu offers a pine-scented introduction to Greece, followed by a second beautiful Ionian island, mountainous Cephallonia. Now to the mainland and the cliff-hugging medieval town of Monemvasia, before we reach our final destination, Piraeus, gateway to Athens. Along the way, you can enjoy special hosted events with the Alajmo brothers to hear what inspired their menus for Osteria d'Ovidio.

Athens is the starting point for this voyage from Greece to Italy, which also calls at Turkey and Malta. First, we head south to enchanting Santorini, with its white cube dwellings clinging to the edge of a sunken volcano. Next we turn north-east to the cosmopolitan seaside resort of Bodrum for a taste of the Turkish high life. A day at sea allows plenty of time to enjoy all that the ship has to offer as we journey to Valletta, Malta's honey-stoned capital, and then Trapani in Sicily. Discover how the strategic location of both of these enchanting cities has turned them into fascinating cultural crossroads. Discover another Italian island, Sardinia, when we visit Cagliari, with its enticing mix of medieval mystery and gorgeous beaches to explore. Onwards we go to our final destination, Civitavecchia, and the promise of some time in Rome exploring its majestic architecture, ancient wonders, and incredible gastronomy.

Sail from Rome to Barcelona along the Italian and French Rivieras on this cruise with a touch of added glamor. Departing Civitavecchia, we head for Livorno, gateway to Tuscany, where some of the finest wines are produced in the vineyards of Chianti. Lovely Portofino comes next, once a humble fishing village, now a chic destination favored by the jet-set. We make a quick hop to Ile Rousse, Corsica's own Riviera-style seaside resort, before the glitz and glamour of Monte-Carlo beckons. An overnight stay makes a trip to the famed casino possible – who can resist a throw of the dice at these legendary tables? Onwards now across the French border to pretty Sète to stroll the banks of its canals before we sample island life, Spanish style, in Mahón on Menorca. Our final stop is Barcelona, where there's plenty to see and do for those who fancy staying around for a while longer.

From Rome, we visit salt-licked Salerno, which has all the picturesque charm of the Amalfi Coast with fewer crowds. Next, we visit Syracuse on Sicily's Ionian Coast, renowned for its ancient Greek and Roman ruins. Malta's historic fortified capital of Valletta is next, home to Baroque architecture, Knights of St. John heritage plus a lively and creative food scene. Relax during a day at sea, enjoying life on board in the utmost comfort, as we sail to the Cretan city of Chania, which stuns with its 14th-century Venetian harbor. Next, we explore the strollable Peloponnesian port town of Nafplio, with its imposing fortresses and a castle on an island in the bay. Our last stop is sun-soaked Syros, an unsung Cyclades gem, before we arrive into the port of Piraeus, for ancient Athens.

Two days in Malta's historic capital mark the start of this journey around the Med, which touches both Europe and Africa. Our first stop is Tunisia's ancient trading port of La Goulette, the jump-off point for the bustling capital Tunis, the ruins of ancient Carthage, and the eye-catching blue-and-white seaside village of Sidi Bou Said. Next, we cross to Italy and Trapani, Sicily, where a bowl of the local fish couscous reveals long ties with nearby North Africa, then the Aeolian island of Lipari, for boutiques, bistros and turquoise waters. We reach the Italian mainland at the lemon-scented streets of Sorrento, on the Bay of Naples, and then a day at sea takes us to Civitavecchia, gateway to the capital, Rome. One more sea day brings us to our final stop Barcelona, to sip cava and people-watch on Las Ramblas and marvel at Antoni Gaudí's whimsical architecture.

From Athens, we sail across to the Greek island of Naxos, with its sugar-cube houses and vast stretches of sand, before arriving in the astonishing medieval fortress town of Monemvasia, which sits atop a large rock surrounded by sea and accessible from the mainland by a causeway. A day at sea brings us to La Goulette in Tunisia, where you can explore the ruins of the ancient city of Carthage, visit the pretty white-and-blue town of Sidi Bou Said, or browse the souks for souvenirs. Next, we enter Italian waters to discover Cagliari, Sardinia, home to a 13th-century castle and a Roman amphitheater. Now to France: we visit Ajaccio in Corsica, Napoleon's birthplace, followed by two days in glamorous Monte Carlo for a roll of the dice in its iconic casino. Picturesque Toulon on the French Riviera is next, before a day at sea brings us to the spirited Spanish city of Barcelona.

Our European odyssey begins in fine style with a day at sea that brings us to Cádiz, Spain's 3,000-year-old Phoenician-founded city. Next, we spend two days in the colorful Portuguese capital of Lisbon, where you can stroll hilly streets lined with chic boutiques and stylish restaurants, and sample the city's revered custard tarts, pastéis de nata. More culinary joys await in Oporto, the birthplace of port wine, before we cross back into Spanish waters. Wander the historic streets of A Coruña – alleged to have been founded by Hercules – and soak up the seaside charm of Gijón, before we weave our way towards Bordeaux. We spend three days in this graceful French city surrounded by some of the world's top vineyards. A final day at sea brings us to our final destination, the British maritime hub of Portsmouth that is home to storied ships including HMS Victory and the Mary Rose.

Setting sail from Civitavecchia, the first stop on our week-long Mediterranean voyage is the culinary heavyweight of Naples, where pizza is more than food – it's an art form. Messina, on Sicily, is next, with its unique blend of Norman, Arab, and Byzantine influences. Try not to miss the noon performance of "Ave Maria" enacted by the world's largest astronomical clock. We then come to Malta's fortified capital of Valletta, reputed to be the sunniest place in Europe and with many historic wonders to discover. A relaxing day at sea brings us to Souda in Greece, jumping-off point for the Cretan city of Chania, where bustling waterfront restaurants line the promenade of a 14th-century harbor. Next is Kusadasi, a lively Turkish coastal resort on the Aegean Sea with beautiful beaches and plenty of shopping opportunities, before our journey ends in Piraeus, from where you can enjoy all that ancient Athens has to offer.
